

Connecting the Liberal Arts to Career Choices
3rd Annual Diversity in the Workplace
Finding a Common Ground

UNC ASHEVILLE

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7TH 4:00-6:00 PM
HIGHSMITH UNION 222-224 MOUNTAIN SUITES

Networking, Light Refreshments and Door Prizes!

Network and learn from community leaders the importance of diversity related to workplace awareness. Also hear how others have overcome personal challenges related to issues of diversity.

Featuring:

- Brian Davis, Special Events Assistant, The Grove Park Inn (UNC Asheville Alumnus)
- Johnnie Grant, Publisher, The Urban News
- Eric Howard “Big E”, Social Worker, Randolph Learning Center
- Hope Huskey, Business Development Specialist, (UNC Asheville Alumna)
Cherokee Native American Business Development Center
- Sarah Nunez, Consultant for Non profits and Special Events (UNC Asheville Alumna)

Co-Moderators:

- Deborah Miles, Executive Director, The Center for Diversity Education
- Bryan Schaffer, Assistant Professor, Department of Management and Accountancy

No RSVP Required—Open to the Community

Co-Sponsored by the UNCA Career Center, Academic Affairs, Student Activities and Integrative Learning, Multicultural Student Programs, The Center for Diversity Education, The Office of Cultural & Special Events, and Student Organizations: The Black Student Association, HOLA, Alliance